

TOPIC BLOCKS

Introductory Block
October to March
Block length: 20 weeks	Cours offering: once a year
5 modules of 4 weeks each
1. Pathology (4 weeks) 2. Pharmacology, Toxicology (4 weeks) 3. Introduction to Biometry (3 days), Preventive Medicine / Health Economics, Health System, Public Health (2 weeks), Introduction to Immunology (1 week) (= 4 weeks) 4. Hygiene, Mikrobiology, Virology (4 weeks) 5.1 Radiology, Radiotherapy, Radiation Shielding (2 weeks) 5.2 Block Rotation Internal Medicine and Surgery (2 weeks)
Block I	Block II
March to August
Block length: 14 weeks each	Course offering: twice a year
Internal Medicine, Family Practice, Clinical Chemistry, Laboratorial Diagnostics	Surgery, Orthopedics, Urology, Anesthesiology, Emergency Medicine
Weeks 1 - 2: Clinical Chemistry	Week 1: Naturopathy, Pain Medicine, Palliative Care
Weeks 3 - 12: 5 modules of 2 weeks each	Weeks 2 - 12: 8 modules
1. Cardiology, Angiology, Pulmology 2. Gastroenterology 3. Nephrology, General Internal Medicine 4. Haematology, Oncology, Rheumatology 5. Endocrinology, Sports Medicine, Geriatrics	Cardiac Surgery, Thoracic Surgery Abdominal Surgery Vascular Surgery, Urology Musculoskeletal Modul (Orthopedics, Trauma Surgery, Plastic Surgery) Anesthesiology, Emergency Medicine
Week 13: Exams Preparation	Week 13: Exams Preparation; Exam: Emergency Medicine
Week 14: Exams	Weeks 14: Exams: Surgery, Rehabilitation, Physiotherapy, Clinical-Pathological Conference
throughout the block: Family Practice integrated: Clinical Pharmacology/Pharmacotherapy integrated: Medicine of Aging	concurrent to block II: Clinical-Pathological Conference concurrent to block II: Rehabilitation, Physiotherapy and Naturopathy concurrent to block I-III: Pain Medicine concurrent to block II: Palliative Care
Block II	Block I
October to February
Block III	Block IV
March to July
Course offering: twice a year	Course offering: twice a year
4 modules of 4 weeks each	4 modules of 4 weeks each
1. Neurology (4 weeks) 2. Psychiatry, Psychosomatics, Psychotherapy (4 weeks) 1. + 2. separate exams at the end of each module credits from each exam combined 3.1 Otolaryngology (2 weeks) 3.2 Ophthalmology (2 weeks) 4.1 Dermatology, Venerology (2 weeks) 4.2 Infectious Diseases, Immunology (2 weeks)	1. Gynaecology, Obstetrics (with Block Rotation) (4 weeks) 2. Pediatrics (with Block Rotation) (4 weeks) 3. Epidemiology, Medical Biometry, Medical Informatics, Human Genetics (4 weeks) 4. Occupational and Social Medicine, Forensic Medicine, Clinical Environmental Medicine; History, Theory and Ethics of Medicine (4 weeks)
Block Rotation Family Practice (2 weeks - between January and March)
Block IV	Block III
August to December
Research Project, Elective Discipline (8 month, freely selectable)

Elective Tracks (alternative to Elective Discipline)

- Entry requirement for other modules
- Interdisciplinary Performance Records
- Areas of Overlap
- Block Rotations