

TOPIC BLOCKS

Elective Tracks (alternative to Elective Discipline)	Introductory Block
	October to March
	Block length: 20 weeks	Courses offering: once a year
	5 modules of 4 weeks each
	1. Pathology (4 weeks) 2. Pharmacology, Toxicology (4 weeks) 3. Introduction to Biometry (3 days), Preventive Medicine / Health Economics, Health System, Public Health (2 weeks), Introduction to Immunology (1 week) (= 4 weeks) 4. Hygiene, Mikrobiology, Virology (4 weeks) 5.1 Radiology, Radiotherapy, Radiation Shielding (2 weeks) 5.2 Block Rotation Internal Medicine and Surgery (2 weeks)
	Block I	Block II
	March to August
	Block length: 14 weeks each	Course offering: twice a year
	Internal Medicine, Family Practice, Clinical Chemistry, Laboratorial Diagnostics	Surgery, Orthopedics, Urology, Anesthesiology, Emergency Medicine
	Weeks 1 - 2: Clinical Chemistry	Week 1: Naturopathy, Pain Medicine, Palliative Care
	Weeks 3 - 12: 5 modules of 2 weeks each	Weeks 2 - 12: 8 modules
	1. Cardiology, Angiology, Pulmology	Cardiac Surgery, Thoracic Surgery
	2. Gastroenterology	Abdominal Surgery
	3. Nephrology, General Internal Medicine	Vascular Surgery, Urology
	4. Haematology, Oncology, Rheumatology	Musculoskeletal Modul (Orthopedics, Trauma Surgery, Plastic Surgery)
5. Endocrinology, Sports Medicine, Geriatrics	Anesthesiology, Emergency Medicine
Week 13: Exams Preparation	Week 13: Exams Preparation; Exam: Emergency Medicine
Week 14: Exams	Weeks 14: Exams: Surgery, Rehabilitation, Physiotherapy, Clinical-Pathological Conference
throughout the block: Family Practice	concurrent to block II: Clinical-Pathological Conference integrated: Clinical Pharmacology/Pharmacotherapy	concurrent to block II: Rehabilitation, Physiotherapy and Naturopathy integrated: Medicine of Aging	concurrent to block I-III: Pain Medicine concurrent to block II: Palliative Care
Block II	Block I
October to February
Block III	Block IV
March to July
Course offering: twice a year
4 modules of 4 weeks each	4 modules of 4 weeks each
1. Neurology (4 weeks)	1. Gynaecology, Obstetrics (with Block Rotation) (4 weeks)
2. Psychiatry, Psychosomatics, Psychotherapy (4 weeks)	2. Pediatrics (with Block Rotation) (4 weeks)
1. + 2. separate exams at the end of each module	3. Epidemiology, Medical Biometry, Medical Informatics, Human Genetics (4 weeks)
credits from each exam combined	4. Occupational and Social Medicine, Forensic Medicine, Clinical Environmental Medicine (4 weeks)
3.1 Otolaryngology (2 weeks)	throughout the block: Human Genetics
3.2 Ophthalmology (2 weeks)	throughout the block: History, Theory and Ethics of Medicine
4.1 Dermatology, Venerology (2 weeks)
4.2 Infectious Diseases, Immunology (2 weeks)
Block Rotation Family Practice (2 weeks - between January and March)
Block IV	Block III
August to December
Research Project, Elective Discipline (8 month, freely selectable)

- Entry requirement for other modules
- Interdisciplinary Performance Records
- Areas of Overlap
- Block Rotations